

Przemysł

*P*rzemyśl is one of the oldest and most beautiful Polish towns. It is situated at the foothills of the Carpathian Mountains. There are more than a thousand monuments, unforgettable landscapes, steep, narrow streets, historical buildings and old churches with towers that climb ever higher.

---

THE OLD MARKET SQUARE

It is believed to be the only sloping marketplace in Europe. There are houses with the beautiful Art Nouveau decoration, arcades and many nineteenth century elements.

THE BEAR FOUNTAIN

You simply cannot miss the fountain with a bear monument, standing in the centre of the market. Fountain was founded in 1964 . Today it is one of the most photographed objects and also a symbol of the city.

STATUE OF THE GOOD SOLIDER

Next to the Bear Fountain you can find a figure of the Good Soldier Svejk, who is the protagonist of a novel by the Czech writer Jaroslav Hasek. This hero visited Przemysl during his military service.

---

The Roman-Catholic Archcathedral and the Greek-Catholic Archcathedral

Przemyśl is the only town in Poland where two cathedrals of different religions are located next to each other. Apart from that, there are fifteen churches in the city! One of them (The Carmelite Church) has an outstanding Rococo pulpit.

The Clock Tower – The Museum of Bells and Pipes

The clock tower is 34 metres high and has got an observation deck. In 1996 it was converted into the Museum of Bells and Pipes. Przemyśl's bells ring out on all continents and the pipes are known throughout the world. It is the only Museum of Bells and Pipes in Poland.

The Railway Station

The main railway station in Przemyśl is an example of the beautiful architecture of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Here you can feel a substitute of the atmosphere in the Galician towns. The station was built in the nineteenth century with the launch of a rail link between Lviv and Kra was

MOUND OF TATAR

Przemyśl is a city situated on seven hills. One of them is the mound of Tatar. While standing on the top, you can admire the beauty of the city. That is why the place is a big attraction for tourists. The most beautiful

Ski Slope

One of the most interesting attractions, which brings many people to Przemyśl, is a ski slope. There are 3 ski runs of varying difficulty. Skiers can use the following ski station facilities. There is also a gravity slide Alpine-Coaster which is 350m long. It's located near to the ski slope and it is available whole year.

THE FORTRESS OF PRZEMYŚL

It is a powerful complex of defense, the third largest fortress in Europe (after Antwerp and Verdun). Przemyśl fortress was under siege three times (thing unprecedented in the history of wars). It also underwent the longest siege - the isolation period was 173 days

THE CASIMIRIAN CASTLE

One of the most important sites in the city. Being located on a hill (about 270 m above sea level) it is well visible from many parts of the city. Next to the Casimirian Castle is the Przemyśl's City Park, created in the Period of Partitions

THE KRASICZYN CASTLE

It is not exactly located in Przemyśl. Krasiczyn Village is just 15 km away